Bright Futures Educational Trust is a Multi-Academy Trust with eight schools ranging through Primary, Secondary, and a Special School. The academies are based in the North West and include two in Blackpool, South Shore Academy which is a secondary school and Marton Primary Academy and Nursery.

We are seeking an exceptional, ambitious, and self-motivated Deputy Head of School to provide the strategic leadership for personal development, behaviour and welfare across the Academy, building on the many strengths identified in our recent inspection.

You will join a team of ambitious senior leaders who are committed to providing an outstanding educational experience for all students.

The successful candidate will be a dynamic and visionary individual with character, determination and integrity, a leader who actively looks to inspire others to give their best.

This role will suit an ambitious school leader seeking to work with colleagues to further develop and strengthen our academy.
